After a long COVID-induced break: The Salle Jean-Pierre-Houde Ciné-Club is back!

Châteauguay, March 29, 2021 – It is with great pleasure that Ville de Châteauguay announces the return of our much-loved Ciné-Club, with the launch of our spring program, which will officially begin on Monday, April 12, with the presentation of La déesse des mouches à feu, the latest feature film by director Anaïs Barbeau-Lavalette.

Châteauguay film lovers will also be treated to the spirited thriller Les traducteurs, 14 jours, 12 nuits with the amazing Anne Dorval, Mon cirque à moi starring Patrick Huard, and Mon année Salinger by Philippe Falardeau, featuring the great Sigourney Weaver, to name just a few.

Three screenings per film

Due to restrictions related to COVID-19, the Ciné-Club screenings will take place on Mondays from April 12 to June 14 at 10:00 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. in the Salle Jean-Pierre-Houde at the Centre culturel Georges-P. Vanier (15 Boulevard Maple). Masks are mandatory for everyone, and tickets will be distributed based on the mandatory 1.5-metre distance between every individual or family bubble.

The regular price of admission is $7 and a $1 discount is granted to people with a Passeport-Loisir. It is best to get your tickets in advance on the Châteauguay website. To benefit from the “member” rate, people with a valid Passeport-Loisir must first activate their member profile by contacting the ticket office at 450-698-3100. Tickets can also be purchased by calling this number. The official sale will begin on Wednesday, March 31, at noon.

The complete program is available on the Ville de Châteauguay website at <https://ville.chateauguay.qc.ca/en/cinema/home/>.
